

TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF PURCHASE

1. ACCEPTANCE-ENTIRE AGREEMENT

(a) These terms and conditions of purchase apply to Roller Bearing Company of America, Inc., including its affiliates and subsidiaries (collectively "Buyer"). Seller agrees to be bound by and to comply with all the terms and conditions of this order, including any supplements thereto, and all specifications and other documents referred to in this order. Performance of the services called for by this order shall be deemed acceptance of this order. THIS ORDER DOES NOT CONSTITUTE AN ACCEPTANCE BY BUYER OF ANY OFFER TO SELL, ANY QUOTATION, OR ANY, PROPOSAL. REFERENCE IN THIS ORDER TO ANY SUCH OFFER TO SELL, QUOTATION, OR ANY PROPOSAL SHALL IN NO WAY CONSTITUTE A MODIFICATION OF ANY OF THE TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF THIS ORDER. BUYER OBJECTS IN ADVANCE TO THE INCLUSION OF ANY ADDITIONAL, INCONSISTENT OR DIFFERENT TERMS PROPOSED BY SELLER IN THE ACCEPTANCE OR ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF THIS ORDER. THE INCLUSION OF SUCH TERMS BY SELLER WILL BE OF NO SIGNIFICANCE, AND SUCH PROPOSED TERMS WILL NOT BE CONDITIONS OR ADDITIONAL TERMS TO THIS ORDER, AND BUYER'S ACCEPTANCE OF SELLER'S GOODS OR SERVICES SHALL NOT BE DEEMED AN ACCEPTANCE OF SUCH TERMS. Unless otherwise stated on the face of this order, the following terms and conditions shall apply.

(b) This order, with such documents as are expressly incorporated herein by reference, is intended by the parties as a final expression of their agreement with respect to such terms as are included herein and is intended also as a complete and exclusive statement of the terms of their agreement. No course of prior dealings between the parties and no usage of the trade shall be relevant to determine the meaning of this agreement.

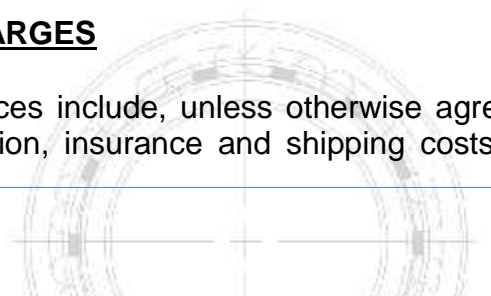

(c) Any terms and conditions proposed by Seller inconsistent with or in addition to the terms and conditions contained in this Order shall be void and of no effect unless specifically agreed to in writing by Buyer's authorized personnel, regardless of whether or not such terms and conditions materially alter this Order and irrespective of any payment by Buyer hereunder.

2. PRICE

The prices for the goods or services purchased by Buyer pursuant to this order will be Seller's prices specified on the face of this order. Seller warrants that the prices for the goods or services sold to Buyer under this order are not less favorable than those currently extended to any other customer for the same or like goods or services in equal or less quantities. In the event Seller reduces its price for such goods or services during the term of this order, Seller agrees to reduce the prices hereof correspondingly. No extra charges of any kind including interest charges, service charges or carrying charges will be allowed unless specifically agreed to in writing by Buyer.

3. TAXES AND OTHER CHARGES

The price for the goods or services include, unless otherwise agreed and specifically listed on the face hereof, all packing, inspection, insurance and shipping costs and all federal, state and local excise, sales, use, value added, transfer or other taxes assessable against the production, sale, shipment or use of any goods or services covered by this order.

4. DELIVERY AND DEFAULT

Time is of the essence in the performance of this order. All goods must be shipped at the most advantageous rates unless otherwise authorized in writing by Buyer; any extra expense in effecting delivery of goods not so shipped will be charged to Seller. Delivery shall not be deemed to be complete until goods or services have actually been accepted by Buyer. Delivery of goods or services must be made within the time specified in this order or applicable order. In the event Seller for any reason anticipates difficulty in complying with the required delivery date, or in meeting any of the other requirements of this order, Seller shall promptly notify Buyer in writing. If Seller does not comply with Buyer's delivery schedule, Buyer may require delivery by fastest way and charges resulting from the premium transportation must be fully prepaid and absorbed by Seller. Buyer may by written notice of default to Seller terminate the whole or any part of this order (i) if Seller fails to perform within the time specified herein or any extension thereof; or (ii) if Seller fails to perform any of the provisions of this order. In the event of termination pursuant to this section, Buyer shall have the right, in addition to any other rights and remedies conferred by law or under this order, to procure, upon such terms and in such manner as Buyer may deem appropriate, goods or services similar to those terminated, and Seller shall be liable to Buyer for any excess costs for such similar goods or services. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, Seller shall not make material commitments or production arrangements in excess of the amount or in advance of the time necessary to meet the agreed upon delivery schedule. It is Seller's responsibility to comply with this schedule, but not to anticipate Buyer's requirements.

5. QUANTITY

Goods or services may not be shipped or performed to Buyer in advance of Buyer's delivery schedule without Buyer's prior written approval. Any unapproved shipments may be returned to Seller at Seller's expense, shipping charges collect.

6. PACKAGING AND IDENTIFICATION

Each shipment under this order must be positively identified by suitable marking on the outside of each package, including notice of hazardous substances, in accordance with industry standards and will comply with applicable laws, including all applicable provisions of Title 49 of the Code of Federal Regulations, and carrier requirements. An itemized list of contents must be contained in each shipment bearing the order number and on the outside of each shipment in format approved by Buyer. No charge will be allowed by Buyer for cartage or packing unless agreed upon beforehand in writing. All expenses incurred by Seller's failure to furnish necessary shipping documents shall be charged to Seller and may delay payment of invoices. All goods will be packed in accordance with ATA 300.

7. QUALITY AND INSPECTION

Notwithstanding (i) payment, (ii) passage of title, or (iii) prior inspection or test, all goods or services delivered shall at all times be subject to Buyer's final inspection and testing but neither Buyer's inspection or testing nor failure to inspect or test shall relieve Seller from full responsibility for furnishing goods and services conforming to the requirements of the order, nor prejudice any claim, right or privilege Buyer may have because of defective or unsatisfactory goods or services. If at any time, any of the products delivered or services performed are found to be defective in design, material or workmanship or not in conformity with the drawings specifications or other requirements of the Order, including failure to provide safety data sheets, certifications or any other required documentation, Buyer reserves the right to reject and return at the risk and expense of Seller such portion of any shipment which may be defective or fails to comply with specifications without invalidating the remainder of the order. Any goods or services rejected or otherwise not meeting the standards set forth above may be held for disposition at the expense and risk of Seller or, at Buyer's sole discretion, be returned for credit or promptly replaced or reperformed by Seller at Seller's sole expense. During the performance of this order, and at no additional cost to Buyer, Seller's quality control or inspection system and manufacturing processes are subject to review, verification, and analysis by Buyer, governmental regulatory agency (i.e. the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA)), or as otherwise required by applicable law. Seller will furnish to Buyer, as reasonably necessary, all that is required to successfully perform the inspection including, but not limited to, information regarding subcontractors and suppliers. In the event Buyer, its customers, the FAA, or any government regulatory agency is required to perform an inspection on Seller's premises, Seller shall provide reasonable facilities and assistance for the safe and convenient performance of these duties.

Records of all inspection services by Seller shall be kept complete and available to Buyer during the performance of this order and for such longer periods as may be specified in this order or as otherwise required by Buyer.

8. INSPECTION OF BOOKS AND RECORDS

Seller shall keep and maintain such books, records and other documents as are necessary to demonstrate its compliance with all FAA requirements. Seller grants Buyer or its authorized representative, the right to examine those books, records, documents and other supporting data which will permit adequate evaluation of Seller's compliance with FAA, EASA or other foreign aviation regulatory agency. This right may be exercised at any time upon reasonable advance notice to Seller.

9. SUSPENSION OF WORK / CANCELLATION

Buyer shall have the right to direct Seller by written or telegraphic notice, or verbal notice confirmed in writing, to suspend all or any part of the work being done pursuant to this order for a period of time not to exceed ninety (90) days. If the work is suspended pursuant to this paragraph, an equitable adjustment shall be made for any increase in the time and the cost (exclusive of profit) or performing this order necessarily caused by such suspension, and the order will be modified in writing accordingly by change order. No claim will be allowed under this paragraph unless the claim in an amount stated is asserted in writing within ten (10) days after the termination of the suspension. When the suspension has been terminated, Seller shall immediately commence performance, notwithstanding the fact that the amount of the adjustment in price, if any of the order has not been agreed to. Buyer may cancel this order at any time for its convenience, in whole or in part, by giving written notice to Seller. Upon receipt of such cancellation notice, Seller shall immediately act so that no further costs are incurred, and shall thereafter do only such work as may be necessary to preserve and protect work already in progress and to protect material and equipment at the work site or in transit thereto. All cancellation claims must be submitted by Seller in writing to Buyer's purchasing department within 15 days of the order cancellation date. Buyer's sole obligation for cancellation under this section shall be to reimburse Seller for (a) those goods actually shipped and accepted by Buyer up to the date of cancellation, and (b) costs incurred by Seller for unfinished goods, which are specifically manufactured for Buyer and which are not standard goods of Seller, as of the date of cancellation. In no event shall Buyer be responsible for loss of anticipated profit nor shall reimbursement exceed the order value. In no case shall Buyer's responsibility be greater than liability equal to thirty (30) days of finished goods and/or services in process (WIP) and thirty (30) days of raw material unless specifically agreed to in writing by Buyer. In the event Seller suspends operations of its business, becomes insolvent, or becomes subject to any law relating to bankruptcy, insolvency or relief of debtors, Buyer may either terminate this order and procure comparable goods or services from an alternative source or request Seller to provide assurances of performance in writing within five days.

10. CHANGES

Buyer shall have the right to make changes to this order, including, without limitation, quantities, specifications and/or delivery schedules, but no additional charges will be allowed unless authorized in writing by Buyer. If such changes affect delivery or the amount to be paid by Buyer, Seller shall notify Buyer within ten (10) days following a change requested by Buyer with Seller's proposal for adjustments to price or schedule along with sufficient supporting data to justify such adjustments for Buyer's consideration and discussion with Seller. Any claim by Seller for adjustment under this clause must be asserted within thirty (30) days from the date of receipt by Seller of the notification of change. Any price increase or extension of time for delivery shall not be binding on Buyer unless evidenced by a purchase order change notice issued and signed by Buyer and Seller.

11. CONFIDENTIAL INFORMATION

Seller agrees not to make use of nor disclose to third parties any data, designs, drawings, specifications and other information furnished to it by Buyer, except for the performance of this order. Upon completion, cancellation or termination of this order, Seller shall return to Buyer, all such data, designs, drawings, specifications and other information, including copies made by Seller. This order is confidential between Buyer and Seller, and it is agreed by Seller that none of the details connected herewith shall be published or disclosed to any third party without Buyer's written permission. Any knowledge or information which Seller shall have disclosed or may hereafter disclose to Buyer and which in any way relates to the goods or services covered by this order shall not unless otherwise specifically agreed to in writing by Buyer be deemed to be confidential or proprietary information and shall be acquired by Buyer free from any restrictions (other than a claim for patent infringement), as part of the consideration for this order.

12. PAYMENT

Payment terms shall be net sixty (60) days from the date of Buyer's receipt of complete and accurate documentation as set forth herein. All payments are contingent upon receipt of fully acceptable goods and receipt of complete and accurate documentation including invoices with bills of lading, any required certifications, express receipts and bills for prepaid transportation charges attached. The discount period shall be computed from the date delivery is made or complete and accurate documentation is received, whichever last occurs, provided, however, if delivery is accepted by Buyer more than fifteen (15) days prior to the delivery or shipping date specified on the face of this order, the discount period shall be computed from the delivery or shipping date specified or receipt of complete and accurate documentation, whichever last occurs. Payment of invoices will be made in accordance with those terms appearing on the face of this purchase order herein.

13. ASSIGNMENT AND FLOW-DOWN REQUIREMENT

Neither this order, nor any portion thereof, may be assigned, subcontracted or transferred by Seller without prior written consent of Buyer. In the event this order is subcontracted, the order requirements must be flowed down to sub-tier suppliers, and work performance by FAA subcontractors must be verified by an FAA 8130-3 form, when applicable.

14. INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Seller warrants that goods sold and services performed under this order do not, and will not, infringe any valid patent, copyright, trademark, trade secret or any other intellectual property interest owned or controlled by any other person, and Seller agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless Buyer, its officers, employees, agents, representatives, successors, assigns and any of Buyer's customers buying or using the goods or services specified herein, from any and all losses, liabilities, damages, penalties, injuries, claims, demands, actions, suits, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorney and other professional fees and disbursements) arising out of a claim or suit at law or equity for actual or alleged infringement of such intellectual property interests, by reason of the buying, selling or using the goods or services supplied under this order, and will assume the defense of any and all suits and will pay all costs and expenses incidental thereto. In the event that the buying, selling or use of said goods or services is enjoined, Seller shall at its own expense and at its option either procure for Buyer the right to continue buying, selling and using said goods or services or replace same with a non-infringing equivalent; or remove said goods or services from commerce and refund to Buyer the purchase price and the related transportation and handling costs thereof.

15. INDEMNITY

Seller shall indemnify and hold harmless Buyer, its officers, employees, agents, representatives, successors, assigns and any of Buyer's customers buying or using the goods or services specified herein, from and against any and all losses, liabilities, damages, penalties, injuries, claims, demands, actions, suits, costs and expenses (including, without limitation, reasonable attorney and other professional fees and disbursements) of whatsoever kind and nature, in contract or tort, (i) arising out of any misrepresentation by Seller or relating to any breach or default in the performance of Seller's obligations under this order with respect to ownership, possession, use, operation, condition, sale, purchase, lease, maintenance, selection, manufacture, or delivery of any item or items of goods or services (including, without limitation, latent and other defects, whether or not discoverable by Buyer); (ii) arising out of any claims for injury to or death of persons or damage to property in any manner due to, in whole or in part, any act or omission on the part of Seller; and (iii) any defects in goods sold or services provided to Buyer pursuant to this order. This indemnity shall survive termination, cancellation or expiration of this order.

16. COMPLIANCE WITH LAW

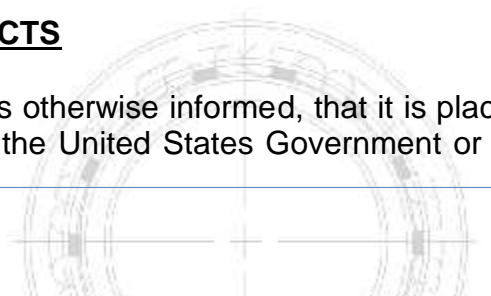

Seller warrants that, in the performance of this order, Seller and all goods and services provided hereunder will comply with all applicable federal, foreign, state and local laws, ordinances, codes, regulations, and orders now in effect or which may become effective and which may apply to the goods or services provided hereunder, including, but not limited to, all applicable environmental laws and regulations, United States Department of Commerce and other United States import controls, laws and regulations which may require licensing or authorization for and/or prohibit export, re-export or diversion of products or services, and all FAA or applicable foreign aviation regulations, orders and other requirements directly or indirectly applicable to Seller. Seller shall indemnify, hold harmless and defend Buyer from and against all losses, costs, fees and damages arising directly or indirectly, from any actual or alleged failure by Seller to comply with any federal, foreign, state or local statutes, regulations or other legal obligations, including without limitation all FAA and foreign aviation regulatory requirements.

17. WARRANTIES

Seller also warrants that all goods and services sold hereunder or pursuant hereto will be of the best quality of their respective kinds and free from all defects in material and workmanship, and shall conform strictly to the specifications, drawings, samples or other requirements including performance specifications, specified or furnished and shall be merchantable and fit for Buyer's intended purposes. Unless manufactured pursuant to detailed design furnished by Buyer, Seller assumes design responsibility and warrants the items to be free from defects in design and fit for the intended purpose. This warranty shall run to Buyer, its successors, assigns, customers, and other users of the goods or services. For any breach of this warranty, Seller shall take all necessary action, at Seller's full cost and expense, to correct such breach in the most expeditious manner possible. All costs incurred in the expedient correction of breach, (including premium time, de-installation, installation, re-commissioning and freight if required by Buyer's operating needs) shall be borne by Seller. Seller agrees to comply with all such flow down provisions. Seller also agrees, upon request, to furnish Buyer with a certificate or certificates in such form as Buyer may require certifying that Seller is in compliance with all such terms and conditions as well as any applicable law or regulation. Upon request, Buyer will make available to Seller copies of all pertinent terms and conditions required by any such government contract or product approvals or authorizations.

Title to goods and services purchased by Buyer hereunder shall pass to Buyer simultaneously when risk of loss to such goods and services passes to Buyer in accordance with the terms herein.

22. GOVERNING LAW

This order and all questions and disputes concerning such arising hereunder shall be governed by, and construed in accordance with, the laws of the State of Connecticut (without regard to the laws that might be applicable under principles of conflicts of law, and without regard to the jurisdiction in which any action or special proceedings may be instituted) as to all matters, including but not limited to matters of jurisdiction, validity, construction, effect and performance. The United Nations Convention on Contracts for the International Sale of Goods (1980) shall specifically not apply to this order.

A holding that any term or condition hereof is void or unenforceable shall not render void or unenforceable any other terms or conditions of this order. No claim or right arising out of a breach of this order can be discharged in whole or in part by a waiver or renunciation of the claim or right unless the waiver or renunciation is supported by consideration and is in writing signed by the aggrieved party. The failure of Buyer to enforce at any time or for any period of time any of the provisions hereof shall not be construed to be a waiver of such provisions nor the right of Buyer thereafter to enforce each and every such provision. 26. LIMITATION ON BUYER'S LIABILITY

In no event will Buyer be liable to Seller for any indirect, incidental, consequential, or punitive damages, or for loss of profits, revenue, or data, whether in an action in contract, tort, strict liability, or otherwise, even if advised of the possibility of those damages. In the event of a Dispute, the parties agree that their respective project representatives familiar with the issue will schedule a meeting (by telephone or in person) to discuss the Dispute and to attempt in good faith to resolve it. If after ten (10) days, the matter is not resolved, then as promptly as practicable an executive officer of Buyer and an executive officer of Seller shall meet (by telephone or in person) to discuss and attempt in good faith to resolve the Dispute. If after such discussions, either of the parties concludes that no resolution of the Dispute is possible, then the parties can pursue any available legal remedy, action, or proceeding. Buyer shall be entitled to recover from Seller and Seller agrees to pay all costs related to such litigation as well as all attorneys' fees incurred by Buyer in connection therewith in addition to all other rights and remedies it might have.

28. JURISDICTION

Neither Party will be responsible for any failure to perform hereunder due to unforeseen circumstances beyond either party's control, including acts of God, war, weather, terrorism, riot, embargoes, acts of civil or military authorities, fire, flood, supply chain disruption or interruption, accident, or labor strike. Such failure or delay will not constitute a material breach; however, either party shall have the right to terminate if the cause of such failure or delay persists for a period in excess of ninety (90) days.

If in Buyer's discretion the delay is not capable of prompt remedy, Buyer may terminate this order for its own convenience pursuant to the terms of this order. Buyer shall not be liable for damages resulting from delays arising out of causes beyond its control, including but not limited to, acts of God, acts of any government, fires, floods, epidemics, quarantine restrictions, strikes, labor shortages, material shortages or significant price increases, freight embargoes, and severe weather, nor shall such delay affect the remainder of this order.
